

THE REFORMATION

OBSERVING 500 YEARS

Week 3:

Means of Grace: Office of the Keys

The central issue which caused Luther to depart from the Roman Catholic tradition was the matter of who holds the “keys to the kingdom.” This “Office of the Keys” is what Jesus handed over to his disciples when he commanded them to bind and loose sin. This was such an important issue to Luther that he said without the forgiveness of sin, there is no faith in God. Simply put, without Jesus’ forgiveness in your ear, you can’t believe in God.

To learn more about Baptism, watch the video at lutherhouseofstudy.org.

THE REFORMATION

OBSERVING 500 YEARS

Week 3:

Means of Grace: Office of the Keys

The central issue which caused Luther to depart from the Roman Catholic tradition was the matter of who holds the “keys to the kingdom.” This “Office of the Keys” is what Jesus handed over to his disciples when he commanded them to bind and loose sin. This was such an important issue to Luther that he said without the forgiveness of sin, there is no faith in God. Simply put, without Jesus’ forgiveness in your ear, you can’t believe in God.

To learn more about Baptism, watch the video at lutherhouseofstudy.org.

